

November 26—December 9, 2010

New Jersey Apartment Association

Advance & protect the welfare of the apartment industry in NJ

Value Companies takes home four awards at New Jersey Apartment Association Annual Ceremonies

CLIFTON, NJ — The New Jersey Apartment Association presented its 17th annual Garden State Awards at the Hyatt Regency-New Brunswick on October 21st.

Value Companies took home four awards for three properties during the annual gala which honors the state's most exceptional residential apartment management companies and professionals.

Gateways at Randolph in Morris County received recognition for "Best Managed Property – More Than 200 Units" and "Best Curb Appeal." Fox Hill Apartments in Passaic County's Passaic was cited for "Best Managed Property – Less Than 200 units" and 140 Mayhill in Bergen County's Saddle Brook was awarded "Best Managed Property – Mid/High-Rise."

"These awards are a tribute to an exceptional staff of property managers, leasing agents, maintenance personnel and more who form the Value Companies team and are responsible for these exemplary efforts to serve our residents," says Jon Moore, Vice President of Development for Value, which owns and manages a portfolio of 3,800 residential units in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Texas and Florida.

"To have prominent industry peers acknowledge Value Companies and our neighborhoods is certainly an honor and we look forward to continuing a high level of customer service and professionalism at every rental community throughout our portfolio."

Shown from left: Cheryl Byrne and Jack Linefsky of Value Companies accept NJAA Award for "Best Managed Property – Mid/High-Rise" at the annual Garden State Awards